

I appeal to the FCC to uphold a sense of responsibility to the United States public. Don't allow big business to skew and twist and manipulate the truth at such an important time in our history. Allowing Sinclair to air this Kerry "documentary" as a "news" program to people depending on truth to make wise decisions at the polls is unethical.